THURSDAY, OCT. 14, 1897.

A Vienna professor asserts that the world will come to an end on the 13th of November, 1899, when it will collide with a great comet.

In the circuit court of Green ville Judge Watts decided that a man could not be forced by the town council to put down a brick sidewalk in front of his place of business.

The next Congress will be Democratic. Mr Dingley did it with his little hatchet. He has given the American people an object lesson in economics. The Wilson tariff is abolished, and "blessings brighten as they take their flight."

Lexington has the handsomest, most beautiful and the finest dressed women of any town of its size in the State, and there is no exception.—Lexington Dispatch.

Say, friend, did you ever visit Kingstree? It's an exception.

There is a paper published at Hot Springs named the Arkansas Thomas Cat. Its motto is, "God help the rich, the poor can beg." It declares that it is a paper "of the people, for the people, to be paid for by the people." It advocates "one country, one flag and one wife at a time," and declares that it is in favor of the elevation of horse thieves and public morals.

call and get indebted.

The Washington correspondent of the Columbia Register says that "the policy of Mark Hanna is to vest the national committee men of those Southern States that are without Republican Congressmen with with absolute power of appointment of forth class postmasters in their respective States.
This makes E. A. Webster, of Or-angeburg, complete master of ceremonies as regards such appointments in South Carolina."

Judge Simonton has decided—as was proper, and as we expected—that original package agencies cannot be operated in places where the sale of liquor has been prohibited by statutes antedating the dispensary law. The inference is also that dispensaries cannot there be established. This decision will have the effect of closing all liquor agencies in towns where dispensaries have been for-bidden, and few will regret it.
The essence of Judge Simonton's previous decisions is that outside dealers have the same rights as State dealers, or the State itself as a dealer in liquors. No less and no more. Where prohibition exists by state law or local ordinance it must prohibit against all liquor-sellers alike. This is right. It observes the public will it enforces equal and exact jus-ice. That local option which is the expression of local self government should always be respected. Every county and town in the State should be allowed to pass upon the liquor question for itself, for it is its right, and only by local sentiment can any law or regulation as to liquors be enforced.—The State.

Five-Cent Cotton.

It makes us sick to see farmers forced to sell their hard earned cotton at five cents a pound—twenty-five dollars a bale, hardly enough to pay for its production.

In September, 1890, the cotton market opened at a fraction over 9 cents, and held that through October. The farmers were advised to hold their cotton for better prices. The staple dropped immediately to 5 cents a pound and did not recover for quite two years.

When McKinley, the prince of prosperity, ascended the Republican throne, and began to rule this land, cotton was 7 cents and over.
The henchmen of this great ruler loudly proclaimed that better times than Klondyke had come and were coming. All the cotton mills opened up, all the unemployed were to be put to work and the millenium dawn could be seen in the skies. Notwithstanding all this patridy of rot, cotton began to tumble until it reached its present price. Prosperity! as if any political party could enhance prosperity by taxing every manufactured article the people have to buy! Prosperity—bah!

The world's wheat crop failed.
In the United States the crop was large. The price went to a dollar and over. The Republicans shouted: "We did it with our little prosperity." They did not —The law of supply and demand did it, there would have been dollar wheat, this year if all the political parties, president and congress were at the bottom of the ocean. If the Republican made "dollar wheat," they also made 5 cent cotton." They did neither.
The inevitable law of supply and demand has done the work for both of these great staples, and there is no rubbing out the fact.

Losing Flesh

You naturally lose flesh in the summer and running down is so easy. You get a little weaker each day without hardly noticing it. There is loss of appetite, headache, weakness of the muscles, disturbed sleep, weakness of memory, and these are the beginning of nervous prostration. Iron and tonics and bitters may afford some temporary relief, but what you need is a food for body, brain and nerves.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with the Hypophosphites, furnishes just the nourishment needed for those who are run down and pale and thin and weak. If you lose flesh in summer take Scott's Emulsion now. Don't wait till fall or winter before beginning.

Do You Use It?

It's the best thing for the hair under all circumstances.
Just as no man by taking thought can add an inch to his stature, so no preparation can make hair. The utmost that can be done is to promote conditions favorable to growth. This is done by Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, cleanses the scalp, nourishes the soil in which the hair grows, and, just as a desert will blossom under rain, so bald heads grow hair, when the roots are nourished. But the roots must be there. If you wish your hair to retain its normal color, or if you wish to restore the lost tint of gray or faded hair use Ayer's Hair Vigor.

An Independent Journalist

A Tennessee editor, having offered soft soap as an inducement to subscribers to renew, was warned by an advertising agency that it might result in the loss of several advertisements running in the paper at present. Whereupon the editor manfully remarked:

We have no associate editors and we have no long-distant telephone; we have no ruffles on our shirt-front, and our bank account does not cast a shadow as long as a grocery bill. We are plain people engage in serving the public, week in and week out, and when we find an opportunity of enlarging the circle of our activities we propose taking advantage of it, whether it be in the gratuitous circulation of soft soap, or in the sale, at a living profit, of our own make of gnat oil. We cannot be bribed by advert's ments of Sa-polio or Pearlina, or any other Yankee summer drink that may contain poison.—The Newsprper Union.

Why take Johnson's Chill & Fever Tonic?
Because it cures the most stubborn case of Fever in ONE DAY.

It keeps some men so busy telling what they are going to do to do anything today,

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passager. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized.
It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.
Sold by druggist, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention The County Record and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Ham-hamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.
